    - - Same theme: Roaring 20's as we are hopefully roaring back from covid :)
    - - We are starting to organize class baskets, class pottery, new silent auction donations, as well as faculty follies (parking spot for special events, principal for a day, assistant principal for a day, etc.)
    - - Save the date will be going out next week via facebook and hopefully the Retriever Report
    - - Victoria will be working on silent auction donations to maximize tax deductible donations
    - - Victoria will be reaching out to TRES Admin about Faculty Follies this month
    - - Victoria will meet with Alison and Kerry on ticketing for the event
    - - Catherine will be working on the grade baskets and connecting with the PTA Room Coordinator volunteer
    - - Jill will need to connect with the pottery shop on 40 to set the contract and timing, we will also need to connect with TRES Admin about how to facilitate volunteers in the building after the new year begins. Pottery volunteers will need to be in compliance with all local, state, and HCPSS rules

a. Trunk or Treat

- Sign ups are going really well! We have 129 “yes” responses
- 257 kids
- Should we be staggering? What is the best way to do this? Could we have someone stop and have people waiting?
- 35 trunks- Those who are in the TRES lot with trunks have to stay the whole time
- If you don't have a trunk- you are parking at Folly Quarter
- 72 people are donating candy
- Virtual treasure hunt will be sent out
- Treasure will there for photos
